Dustin Shaffer

Dustin.N.Shaffer@gmail.com

Mission Viejo, California

(949) 505 - 4479

Education:

- University of California, Irvine: (Junior)
    - Calculus
    - Linear Algebra
    - Data Structures
    - C++, Java, Lua, Python, x86 Assembly
    - Member of the Video Game Development Club

Experience:

- Lead Programmer for the UCI Video Game Development Club game:
    "2d Dungeon Crawler / Excursion" (currently under development)

- Fulfilled the roles of Game Designer, Programmer, and Producer at Retroactive Games

- Practiced pair programmer and test-driven developer

Activities

- Boy Scout First Class

- Nicest Lab Aide Award - 2013
    - Received award for being voted the nicest/most approachable lab aide in the Computer Science department at Saddleback College.

- Most Helpful Lab Aide Award (CS1B) - 2013
    - Received award for being voted the most helpful lab aide in the Computer Science department for all "CS1B" computer programming classes at Saddleback College.

Interests:

- Interested in Gameplay and Graphics programming

References:

Michele Rousseau   michelesaddleback@cox.net
Carl Argila   carl@ssdeaf.com

David Carlander   dcarlander@saddleback.edu
Michael McNerney   michael.mcnerney@hp.com
Jake Patton   jake.a.patton@gmail.com